RESOLUTION 2022-11-73

At a Regular Meeting of the
Town Board of the Town of North
Greenbush held at 7:00 p.m. on
November 10, 2022, at the Town
Offices

IN THE MATTER OF ESTABLISHING A TOWN OF NORTH GREENBUSH PERSONAL, PRIVATE AND SENSITIVE INFORMATION POLICY

SUBJECT: PROTECTING PERSONAL, PRIVATE AND SENSITIVE INFORMATION
WHEN DISPOSING OF OR REUSING ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT (PPSI)

The Town Board (Board) recognizes that the Town maintains electronic data essential to the operation of the town. All employees and volunteers of the Town have a responsibility to protect the Town's data from unauthorized generation, access, modification, disclosure, transmission, or destruction. In addition, the Board recognizes the need to keep Personal, Private and Sensitive Information (PPSI) data secure. Prior to reusing or disposing of electronic equipment containing PPSI data, all PPSI data will be removed by the Information Management Services Department.

This policy governs the privacy, security, and integrity of Town data, especially confidential data, and the responsibilities of institutional units and individuals for such data. It also provides the various definitions of data classifications. The implementation of controls and other related operations for the disposal of electronic equipment that may contain personal, private and sensitive information data is provided in the corresponding regulation. The policy and regulation provided herein apply to all employees, elected and appointed officials, visitors and contractors.

Data Classifications

Data owned, used, created, or maintained by the school district is classified into the following four general categories:

- Confidential Data
- Protected Staff Data
- Protected Resident Data

- Public Data

Data stored in collections (i.e., databases, files, tables, etc.) Often these collections do not segregate the more sensitive data elements of a collection from the less sensitive data. Therefore, in determining the classification category, the most sensitive data element in the collection will be used to classify the complete collection.

Confidential

Confidential data is considered the most sensitive and requires the highest level of protection. Confidential data includes data that the Town must keep private under federal, local, and state laws, contractual arrangements, or based on its proprietary worth. Confidential data may be disclosed to individuals on a strict need-to-know basis only. Personal, Private, or Sensitive Information (PPSI) is to be categorized as confidential.

Protected Staff Data

Protected employee data is information that must be guarded due to proprietary, ethical, or privacy considerations, and must be protected from unauthorized access, modification, transmission, storage, or other use. This classification applies even though there may not be a civil statute requiring this protection. Protected employee data is information that is restricted to employees, appointed and elected officials, of the Town who have a legitimate purpose for accessing such data.

Protected Resident Data

Protected resident data is information that must be guarded due to proprietary, ethical, or privacy considerations, and must be protected from unauthorized access, modification, transmission, storage, or other use. This classification applies even though there may not be a civil statute requiring this protection. Protected resident data is information that is restricted to employees, appointed, and elected officials, of the Town who have a legitimate purpose for accessing such data.

Public Data:

Public data is information that may or must be open to the general public. It is defined as information with no existing local, national, or international legal restrictions on access or usage. Public data, while subject to Town disclosure rules, is available to the general public.

Data Classification Roles and Responsibilities

Data Owner

A data owner is the individual(s) assigned by the Board or designee to oversee the proper handling of administrative, or research data. The owner is responsible for ensuring that appropriate steps are taken to protect data and to implement policies, guidelines, and memorandums of understanding that define the appropriate use of the data. Typically, the owner of a collection of information is the person responsible for the business results of that system or the business use of the information (e.g., Comptroller, Human Resources, Building Department, Town Clerk, Assessor, Receiver of Taxes). Where appropriate, ownership may be shared by supervisors of different departments. The data owner is responsible for and authorized to:

Approve who may access data resources and formally assign custody of an information resources asset (e.g., what permissions or types of data a user may access.)

Specify appropriate controls (e.g., access, security, proper handling) based on data classification, to protect the information resources from unauthorized modification, deletion, or disclosure. The owner will convey those requirements as necessary for implementation of controls and will educate those who may have access to the data.

Confirm that the applicable controls specified are in place to ensure appropriate levels of confidentiality, integrity and availability of the data.

Ensure that users, data systems, and relating operations comply with applicable controls.

Assign custody of information resources assets (e.g., computerized systems, electronic files) and provide appropriate authority to those who implement security controls and procedures.

Ensure access rights to the data are re-evaluated or modified when a user's access requirements change (e.g., job assignment change, departure)

Data Security Administrator (DSA)

The Board is charged with implementing the controls specified by the owner. The Board is responsible for the processing, storage and recovery of information. The Board will:

- Implement the controls specified by the owner(s)
- Provide physical and procedural safeguards for information resources
- Assist owners in evaluating the overall effectiveness of controls and monitoring
- Implement the monitoring techniques and procedures for detecting, reporting, and investigating incidents

Data User

The user is any person who has been authorized by the owner of the information to read, enter, or update that information. The user has the responsibility to (1) use the resource only for the purpose specified by the owner, (2) comply with controls established by the owner, and (3) prevent disclosure of confidential or sensitive information. The user is the single most effective control for providing adequate security.
